Message from Youth Chaplain

Dearly beloved in Christ,

Greetings to you all in the precious name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

As we step into the month of November, let us begin with grateful hearts, thanking God for His abundant grace, guidance, and faithfulness throughout the past month. Every new month is a reminder that God continues to lead us, sustain us, and give us opportunities to grow in faith and fellowship.

It was truly a joy and blessing to see our families coming together for the Family Week services. I sincerely thank every family, members and all those who contributed in different ways to make the Family Week a blessed experience. May God continue to strengthen our families and make our homes places where faith is nurtured.

November 1 is observed as World Sunday School Day. Sunday School is not merely another programme of the Church; it is an important ministry through which we nurture the faith of the younger generation. I encourage all our children to be regular and committed to attending Sunday School. At the same time, I make a special appeal to all parents to take the initiative and responsibility to ensure that their children attend Sunday School regularly. Our children need more than education and achievements; they need a strong spiritual foundation. Sending our children to Sunday School is one of the most meaningful investments we can make in their lives and in the future of the Church.

November 8 reminds us of the Church of South India (CSI), Church of North India (CNI), and the Mar Thoma Church, which together have a significant witness within the wider Christian community in India. Let us therefore pray for the unity of all Churches, that our differences may never become greater than our common faith in Christ. May God help us to become instruments of reconciliation, cooperation, and Christian unity in our homes, community, and society.

From the third Sunday of November, we enter the season of Annunciation, as we remember God's announcement of His saving plan. These events invite us to reflect on God's initiative, human response, faith, obedience, and preparation. The season reminds us that God is constantly at work in our lives. We are invited to prepare our hearts and lives to receive and respond to God's will. Annunciation is therefore not only a season we observe; it is a season that calls us to prepare our lives for God's coming and God's purpose.

I would also like to express my sincere gratitude to all the families who have warmly opened their homes for the visits of the Achens. The house visits are progressing very well and are becoming a meaningful opportunity to meet families, listen to one another, pray together, and strengthen our relationship as a Church family. Thank you for your warmth, hospitality, cooperation, and prayers. Let us continue to make our homes places of fellowship, prayer, and Christian witness.

May the Lord bless every family, strengthen every home, guide our children and young people, and lead our entire parish into a deeper experience of His grace and love.

With prayers and blessings,

Tomachen
Youth Chaplain
