Apostolic See of St. Thomas

DR. THEODOSIUS MAR THOMA METROPOLITAN

MESSAGE

It is with great joy and gratitude to God that I extend my warm greetings and prayerful wishes to the Vicar, office-bearers, members, families, and children of the Sharjah Mar Thoma Parish on the occasion of your Parish Day. A Parish Day is an occasion to thank God for His faithfulness and to renew our commitment to the life and mission of the Church. The Malankara Mar Thoma Syrian Church in the Diaspora carries a special responsibility, to remain rooted in Christ while living in a changing and multicultural world.

One of the greatest responsibilities before the Church in the Diaspora is the transmission of faith to our younger generation. Our children and young people are growing up in a multicultural and rapidly changing world. They are exposed to many cultures, ideas, technologies, and ways of life. In this context, the Church must help them understand that Christian faith is not only a tradition inherited from their parents, but a living relationship with Jesus Christ. We must create spaces where our young people can ask questions, express their struggles, discover their gifts, and experience the Church as their own spiritual family. If we fail to pass on our faith, we may preserve our institutions for a while, but we will not preserve our Christian witness for the future.

At the same time, living away from our homeland should never mean losing our responsibility towards it. The blessings received in the Diaspora must become blessings shared with others. Kerala and our homeland remain part of our story – not simply as a place from which we came, but as a community to which we continue to belong. The needs of our homeland, especially the needs of the poor, the marginalized, the elderly, children, and those facing difficulties, should continue to touch our hearts. A truly Christian Diaspora community remembers where it came from and uses the opportunities it has received to serve both the place where it lives and the homeland from which it has journeyed.

The Mar Thoma Church has always understood its life in terms of mission. Wherever our members go, the Church is called to be a witnessing and serving community. In the Gulf region, this witness becomes especially significant. As you celebrate this Parish Day, may the Sharjah Mar Thoma Parish continue to grow not only in numbers and activities, but in faith, fellowship, compassion, and mission. May your homes become centres of Christian nurture, your parish becomes a spiritual home for every generation, and your young people become committed witnesses of Christ wherever God leads them. May God bless your Parish Day celebrations and lead the parish into many more years of faithful witness and fruitful ministry.

With prayers and blessings,

Dr. Theodosius Mar Thoma Metropolitan
