Message From Chaplain

Gaius - a man who helped God's work

As we are approaching an end to a financial year, I thank God for His guidance throughout the last year. I congratulate the office-bearers, executive committee members and all the members for their hard-work and support rendered to the church.

As we are in the period of the lent it is our duty to analyze our life each moment, whether my life is pleasing in the sight of God. It is a time of retrospection and change. 3 John is unique in the canon of scripture as it is the shortest book in the New testament. John is writing to a man named Gaius and Gaius is commended for the very fact that he has shown hospitality to God's people(v8). It is probably a house church. Gaius walked in the truth. What is the truth? The truth is Jesus Christ and His way. Let us ponder on the whole passage:-

1) Feared God rather than Man

Gaius was a man who feared God rather than man. Fearing God is having priority to Jesus Christ and his ways. He knew the truth and he helped God's people. Though there was a person who worked against the truth named Diotrefes. He was an elder who refused even to acknowledge John and his friends as children of God. Even though there were venomous threats from him, Gaius showed hospitality towards God's people. He helped the missionaries, he cared for them and helped them on their way even financially.

After the healing of the lame in the beautiful gate Peter and John were questioned by the Sanhedrin by what power did you heal the lame? They were bold enough to testify the truth i.e by the name of Jesus Christ. They proclaimed "Jesus has become the cornerstone". Jesus is the foundation of the church. Fearing God is a warning too that He is both a loving God as well as a judging God (consuming fire). He is the only who will save us.

2) Lead a person to Jesus

As we reflect our own life does our actions and work lead people to Jesus Christ. Love, truth testify/witness are the common words used here. Truth and life must go together. The greatest thrill is not pointing a person to Christ, the greatest thrill and joy is to lead a person to Jesus and then see them going on with the Lord. That was the joy of apostle John. Also we see Gaius finding joy in helping God's people work for truth.

On the above discussion let us pose certain questions-

Am I like Gaius who knows the truth and are we working for the truth?

Am I a person who is a problem like diotrefes who was against the work of God?

Am I part of the solution to the problem?

Do I lead others to Christ or for our selfish purposes? What is the joy that we have?

As we join in the lent let us humble ourselves and dedicate our lives which will be pleasing to God. May God bless our life.

Rev. Roby J. Mathew
