Message From The Vicar

Dearly beloved in Christ

Sharjah MTC has crowned a coveted position in relation to its formation as the first Mar Thoma church in the Arabian Gulf as its own church building. The hard work and the unfathomable faith of our sojourners in the Arabian Gulf cannot be expressed in our limited vocabulary. Thank God for the mighty guidance and providence experienced by each parishioner in their parish life.

This time I humble myself before the Almighty God, who enabled me to be here with you and serve you in the name of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. Thanks to Episcopal synod for entrusting such a responsible position to serve you all. I would like to acknowledge that the present enthusiasm of our Church is because of the energetic leadership of all the achenes who served and guided the parish. Special word of appreciation to the outgoing Vicar Philip C. Mathew Achen for the sincere and systematic way of leadership in this parish. I am quite aware that I am here not to start a new ministry but to continue the ministry which was done by my former colleagues. Ministry is simple in word, but in practical it is quite challenging because it is the continuation of the ministry of Jesus.

Church is a community which is the symbol and sacrament of Kingdom of God. According to William Temple 'Church is a place of meeting with God. This enable us to quicken our conscience by God's holiness, to nourish our mind by truth, to purify our imagination by his beauty, to open our heart to his love and to surrender our will to his purpose. The liturgical life continues from worship to workplace, from parish to homes, from fellowship to mission. Therefore the ministry entrusted to the church is highly responsible and demanding. World renowned theologian J. K. Chesterton said, 'Church is the only organisation which exists for its non-members. Parish is entrusted to be a visible sign of the Kingdom of God. Oneness is the significant character of the God which will certainly create a strong bond with neighbours in the community. Thus a liturgical life will create a "community of humanity" around the worshippers.

Church is not made up of people who are better than rest, but of people who want to become better than they are. Hence it is the responsibility of each parishioner to continue the eagerness of growth towards Christ, like the builder of the Church Paul. Hope that an event recorded about Pope Pious (1835-1914) is significant in our circumstances too. Once, Pope was walking in the Vatican garden with Cardinals. Pontiff asked to Cardinals, what is the greatest need of the Church today? They replied more churches, Pontiff said No, then schools, No, and then it must be priests No..... At last Pontiff answered that training of laymen in each parish to mould them as real apostle is the need of the Church.

As a faithful community of God we all are marching towards faith and deeds of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. Our worships and services are not the end in itself but the beginning to serve God by serving all the creatures. May I join with you all, in this journey as your servant in Christ, to fulfil God's intention in this world.

May God bless us all,

Rev P. John Philip

MESSAGE FROM TRUSTEE'S

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Greetings in the precious name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ

We are privileged in addressing the Parishioners and thankful to the Almighty for this wonderful opportunity to serve the Parish. In the previous years, Lord has blessed us abundantly and guided our works and ventures. Church being the body of Christ is assigned to execute the will of God. Generosity and social welfare are important in Christian life; and by His grace our church was able to make humble contributions among the needy.

Let us congratulate the Vicars, Office Bearers and Kaisthana Samathi Members for the year 2014-2015 for their valuable services rendered.

May God bless all Office bearers and Kaisthana Samithy members for the year 2015-2016. We thank the parishioners for entrusting us with the responsibilities and we request your wholehearted co-operation and encouragement to fulfill our mission and continue to grow in the Grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

With Prayers and Regards,

JOSE DANIEL
