Message from Chaplain

"VISION OF THE CROSS AND MISSION OF THE YOUTH"

Recently our yuvajana sakhya dealt with the above theme in their conference which I think is relevant in today's context. The cross of Christ is one of the central symbols of Christianity. It is a continuous invitation to thought. Cross must be seen as one of the central revelatory events in the history of salvation. As Moltmann shows in the crucified God—"the crucifixion is the event which reveals the Triune God". Cross shatters our pre-conceived image of God. On the cross we encounter not a God of majesty and power but one who surprises by his weakness and scandalizes us by his helplessness. We come into contact with a God who is neither aloof but one who is deeply moved by the pain and distress of the humanity.

1) God is not a stranger to the world of pain and suffering

The God who saw His Son undergo the agony of the cross cannot be indifferent to the sufferings of mankind. Often we tend to think of God as the Great Absent One when we are tried in the crucible of suffering. We tend to associate God with blessings and happiness. Mystery of the cross reveals to us is that where we think God is absent He is most alive and active. Pain and suffering do not remain outside the ambit of God's providential care. It captures God's involvement in the afflictions of the world.

2) Undergo a spiritual transformation

The cross challenges our value system. Fish is alive in sea water. Though it is inside the sea water, the power inside overcomes the pressure of the water outside. When the fish dies, the water enters in and the fish bulges. Similarly we are in the world but we are not of the world.

There are certain questions to be answered:-

- a) Do you have the same value system that the world has?
- b) Do you come to church to exhibit your external beauty or wealth or social power?
- c) Do you hate your wife/husband ?
- d) Do you look down upon others?

If it is yes, then we are the enemies of the cross.

3) Cross in the life of Jesus

Cross must not be seen as a mere accident in the life of Jesus Christ. The entire life of Christ was under the shadow of Christ. Jesus chose Calvary rather than earthly royalty. Jesus has showed us that self-offering love is the only force in the world strong enough to overcome death. Washing the feet of the disciples was exclusively reserved for the gentile slaves, a demeaning job. Slaves were considered as less human. But Jesus did it. The basin of water and the towel in Jesus's hands echo the glory of the cross. Jesus' ministry did not stop with preaching but PRAXIS. Transfigured Jesus who let Himself to be disfigured on the CROSS is the challenge of the church today.

This vision is not only applicable to youths but everyone. St. Paul says " May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me and I to the world."(Gal 6:14). May the vision of cross empower us for mission.

Suffragan Metropolitan

MESSAGE FROM Rt. Rev. Dr. EUYAKIM MAR COORILLOS EPISCOPA

"DEARLY BELOVED IN CHIRST

I am extremely happy to scribble few lines in this Parish bulletin of Sharjah Mar Thoma Church. I thank God and vicars and members of our church for your wholehearted love and support received, when I was here.

I am really glad to see the growth of the parish and service rendered in this country and elsewhere.

Church is always engaged in the building up of a beautiful community. Characteristic of a new living community is based on its communion with Christ. How deep is our relationship with the Lord decides the quality of the community. Since the quality of our life is directly proportional to the clarity of our relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ. The fullness of our life is possible only through communion with Him.

The deeper communion with the Lord must lead to commitment. The commitment is perfect obedience and deep faith. It is moreover a move from known to unknown, old to new, security to insecurity and is self denial and self offering. It involves commitment for others, commitment for God's will and commitment for self emptying. Commitment demands service, suffering and sacrifice for the establishment of the kingdom of God.

This will lead to communicating the word of God. As we all know the mission of the church is communicating the love of our Lord Jesus Christ, it is possible only through identification. The communication is to form the new living community and is possible through the lifestyle-the life style of Jesus Christ. I am sure keeping in mind our goal, we will identify with the life style of Jesus to witness of our in this country where we are living. May our Mighty Master shower all the blessings up on us all.

With prayerful regards,

Coorilos Methrachen."

Congratulations to Mr. Jibin Mathew Joy
